CHARLOTTE SYMPHONY PRESENTS R&B ICONS BOYZ II MEN

FEBRUARY 24, 2016 | Charlotte, NC – Experience the signature, soulful harmonies of legendary R&B group Boyz II Men as never before with live symphonic accompaniment by the Charlotte Symphony.

Conductor Norman Huynh will lead this exciting one-night-only performance on Saturday, March 12, 2016 at 8 p.m. at Belk Theater at Blumenthal Performing Arts Center.

With over 64 million albums sold worldwide, Boyz II Men is one of the most iconic R&B groups in music history. Winning four Grammy Awards, earning a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame, plus a highly successful residency in Las Vegas are just a few of the group's achievements across a 25-year career.

The performance will feature selections from the group's rich catalogue of smooth-harmony hits, including "It's So Hard to Say Goodbye," "One Sweet Day," and "I'll Make Love to You" – all amplified by the rich sounds of the full symphony orchestra.

Boyz II Men joins the Charlotte Symphony on March 12.

Tickets are available through the Charlotte Symphony ticket office at 704-972-2000, or online at charlottesymphony.org.

The Pops series is presented by Bank of America.

About the Charlotte Symphony

Founded in 1932 and led by internationally renowned Music Director Christopher Warren-Green, the Charlotte Symphony is a non-profit organization that serves the community through music that educates, entertains, and enriches the human spirit. We are world-class musicians, music teachers, and music lovers. We put instruments in the hands of Charlotte's children and actively nurture the next generation with our programs in music education. We bring artistic excellence to Charlotte's parks and hospitals, schools and places of worship, stadiums and concert halls. The Charlotte Symphony is a cornerstone of the cultural community, connecting people and adding value to their lives through music. charlottesymphony.org.
