ANGEL ADAMS APPOINTED
VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION AT THE CHARLOTTE SYMPHONY

January 26, 2023 | Charlotte, NC – The Charlotte Symphony Orchestra (CSO) announces the appointment of Angel Adams as the CSO’s Vice President of Finance and Administration, beginning January 30, 2023. In this role, Adams will oversee the organization’s day-to-day accounting operations, office administration, and strategic financial plan.

Adams joins the Charlotte Symphony from Innovative Digital Systems, the $13M company umbrella for six individual companies, where she served as Controller & HR Manager. She is also the Accounting Consultant for Tosco Music Parties, Inc. Before that, she served as Accounting & Finance Manager for Metrolina Eye Associates, and as Controller of the Levine Museum of the New South for nine years. Earlier accounting positions held were with Continental Tire, Black & Decker US, and as Staff Auditor for Union Carbide and Walmart. She is a graduate of Clemson University, with a Bachelor of Arts in Economics and a Bachelor of Science in Math Sciences.

“I am delighted to be joining the CSO and to have the opportunity to work alongside this group of dedicated and passionate individuals,” said Adams. “I’m especially proud to be able to roll up my sleeves and get to work in support of an organization that has such strong community programs, in addition to its incredible performances in venues throughout Charlotte.”

“We’re thrilled to welcome Angel to the Charlotte Symphony,” said David Fisk, President & CEO of the CSO. “Angel’s appointment completes the restructuring of the CSO’s Leadership Team post-COVID and I’m confident that her wealth of knowledge and enthusiasm will make her an invaluable addition to the team. I would also like to express my appreciation for Wendy Laxton, who has served admirably as Fractional VP of Finance for the last five years.”
