

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Alexandra Zsoldos – 704.714.5116 or alexandraz@charlottesymphony.org

CHARLOTTE SYMPHONY PRESENTS STAYIN' ALIVE A TRIBUTE TO THE BEE GEES

September 27, 2012 | CHARLOTTE, NC- The Charlotte Symphony will present “Stayin’ Alive: A Tribute to the Bee Gees,” for one amazing night in October. The concert will take place on Friday, October 19, 2012 at 8:00 p.m. at Ovens Auditorium. Albert-George Schram, long-time guest conductor and Summer Pops favorite, will conduct the Charlotte Symphony.

Stayin' Alive has been called "the definitive Bee Gees tribute" capturing the Gibb brothers' distinctive harmonies and captivating stage presence. The concert will feature music spanning the Bee Gees' career. Disco to Saturday Night Fever staples like "You Should Be Dancing," "Night Fever," "How Deep Is Your Love," and "Jive Talkin." Also included on the program are early Bee Gee ballads such as "I Started a Joke," "Massachusetts," and "To Love Somebody."

Tickets start at $30 and are available through the Charlotte Symphony ticket office at 704-972-2000 or online at www.charlottesymphony.org. Subscriptions to the Pops Series start at $96 for four concerts.

About the Charlotte Symphony

Founded in 1932, the Charlotte Symphony aspires to serve the whole community through music that educates, entertains and enriches. As the largest arts organization in Charlotte, the symphony plays to 200,000 audience members each year in 90 concerts featuring classical music to pops. The symphony also reaches more than 12,000 students in 55 schools throughout the area in pursuit of its mission to provide musical education. As the largest employer of individual artists in Charlotte, the symphony generates an annual economic impact exceeding $15 million. The symphony welcomes contributions; as with most performing arts organizations, ticket revenues cover only about one-third of expenses.

###